4 If no other building is available there will be no help but to sanction the increased rent. There is however no necessity to advance one year's rent Rs 480 free quibench with the owner for repair purposes. Rent may be increased but no advance is permissible. If the house comes down it is the owner that loses not the Govt which can shift to other building. Request advance for such purposes cannot be supported.

But no other building is available

If other buildings are available there is no need to increase the rent at all -

(6) I venture to think that the advance of one year's rent recommended by the DC may be sanctioned. It may be not so easy for the DC to find a suitable building for the purpose & in such a case the DC's recommendation must be given due weight, as otherwise he may be put to considerable difficulty

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that during my last visit to Mysore on the 26th ultimo I inspected one of the two buildings of the Anglo-Hindustani School there This building is a rented one and owing to its dilapidated condition, the school is put to considerable inconvenience No other building being available for the school I prevailed upon the landlord to execute the necessary repairs and improvements and he has agreed to have them carried out if the present rent of Rs 30/- is raised to Rs 40/- a month and one year's rent at the latter rate is advanced to him in order to enable him to get the necessary work done He has even gone the length of saying that the building may be vacated if repairs are insisted on at the present rent The Practising school for the Mahomedan teachers under training in the Normal School is also held in the same building It is therefore necessary to retain it and allow it the increased rate of rent asked for after the requisite repairs are carried out I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the increase of rent viz Rs 10 a month for the Anglo-Hindustani School Mysore and authorize the payment of one year's rent in advance the charge being met from the sum of Rs 600/- allotted in the State Funds budget of the current year
